GOSPEL REFLECTION: Matthew 1:18-24

Whereas Luke's infancy narrative features Mary, Matthew's account of the birth of Christ features Joseph. Matthew connects Joseph the betrothed husband of Mary to the Joseph in Genesis (youngest son of Jacob, Genesis chapters 38-50) especially through the occurrence of a dream in which the angel appears. St. Joseph is also "from the line of David." Even though Joseph does not speak, he is a righteous man, embodying all that is holy in the tradition of Israel. Joseph's openness to God's spirit prepared him to listen to a dream, receive a message from God, and act on it. Joseph is challenged to trust without knowing the outcome of events – that is the essence of faith.

1. What themes or lessons do you draw from this Gospel account?
2. Recall a time when you were challenged to trust without knowing the outcome.
3. How can we be living signs of "God-with-us" in our parish community and in our world?

GESTURES AND BODILY POSTURE DURING THE MASS –

The following is from guidelines sent out from Bishop Hagemoen

IV. OTHER NOTES ON BOWING, GENUFLECTIONS, AND POSTURE

Priests and ministers genuflect prior to entering the sanctuary and upon leaving it if the tabernacle is contained within it. If the tabernacle is not within the sanctuary, they make a profound bow to the altar alone prior to entering and exiting. Throughout the Mass and other liturgies such as the Divine Office, all (servers, lectors, etc.) make a profound bow to the altar upon entering and leaving the sanctuary⁶ as it takes precedence as the place of sacrificial worship during liturgies, unless the blessed sacrament is exposed during the Rite of Eucharistic Adoration.

LITURGICAL AND SACRAMENTAL MINISTRIES

I. EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION (Continued)

2. "In addition to the ordinary ministers there is the formally instituted acolyte, who by virtue of his institution is an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion even outside the celebration of Mass. If, moreover, reasons of real necessity prompt it, another lay member of Christ's faithful may also be delegated by the diocesan Bishop, in accordance with the norm of law, for one occasion or for a specified time". The Holy See has emphasized that mandating Extraordinary Ministers must be based on the needs of the Church and the unavailability of ordinary ministers.

ii. Determining the Need for Extraordinary Ministers

3. Extraordinary Ministers may serve only if at least one of the following conditions exists:

- a) the priest and deacon are lacking
- b) the priest is prevented by weakness or advanced age or some other genuine reason
- c) the number of faithful coming to Communion is so great that the celebration of Mass would be unduly prolonged.

4. Those chosen to be Extraordinary Ministers are: duly installed acolytes, major seminarians, male and female Religious, catechists, Catholic men or women.

PRAYER FOR THE WEEK

She conceived the holy child within her because "the Holy Ghost over the bent world broods with warm breast and with ah! bright wings." Softly caring, watching, always at hand, warming the world with love. God among us. God with us. Be born for us soon, soon. AMEN
